

CHILDREN IN NEED

Today we raised £133.26 including a donation from Samuel R of £22.15 which was raised by running a lucky dip and selling cakes last weekend. The children were asked to come as their heroes, a wide variety of outfits were worn, including Jack and his horse Marmalade. All professions were on show from emergency services to armed forces, plenty of sports stars, several superheroes and a few Pudseys. Thank you all for your support, the money will be sent off to Children in Need next week.

Please can your child come to Nursery in weather appropriate clothing, particularly waterproof coats, and please send in a spare set of clothes to keep in nursery in case of accidents, thank you.

PARENT SURVEY

Thank you to everyone who returned their surveys, we had 36 in total which were overwhelmingly positive. There were a couple with negative comments and we have spoken to those parents to try and resolve the issues raised.

We had some lovely comments including:

'Great Nursery'

'There is a strong sense of cohesion within the School and Nursery which is reassuring to parents'

'The most lovely and nurturing school I have come across in my personal and professional life'

LOVENY CLASS

Loveny Class have been writing about their heroes in RE this week.

Amy wrote: Kevin Clifton is my hero. He is good at dancing. I admire him because he helps people to dance and has a nice face.

Mack wrote: My hero is my mum. She looks after me when I'm feeling unwell and cheers me up too.

Liv wrote: My hero is Pudsey because he made a company to help children who live on the streets and who are poor. He also helps children who are ill.
