Make a Difference. Shape Futures. Join Us as a Co-opted Governor!

Are you ready to play a vital role in shaping the future of young people in your community? St Neot Primary School is looking for passionate, committed individuals to join our Local Governing Body.

This is your opportunity to bring your voice, skills, and perspective to a role that truly matters.

What You'll Do

As a Co-opted Governor, you'll be part of a team that makes a real impact by:

- Helping set the strategic direction of the school
- Supporting and constructively challenging school leaders
- Contributing your unique experience to strengthen governance

Your Focus Will Be On

- Pupil and staff wellbeing
- The quality of education and school provision
- Pupil progress and outcomes
- The school's role within the local community

Who We're Looking For

- We welcome applications from individuals who:
 - Care deeply about education and making a difference
 - Share our values and commitment to inclusion
 - Are willing to engage in meetings and ongoing training

No prior governance experience is required—just enthusiasm and commitment.

Time Commitment

- Around 6 meetings per year (two per term, ~2 hours each)
- 1 Governor Development Day annually
- Safeguarding training (statutory requirement)
- 1 school visit per term

What the school offers its staff

Why Join Us?

- Make a lasting impact on children and young people
- Develop new skills and gain governance experience
- Work alongside a supportive, purpose-driven team

In the first instance please contact Nic on 01579 320580 for further details.
