

ST Neot Primary School's Proud Moments!

Mrs Bowden's proud moment is that she has completed a whole weeks' worth of Joe Wicks exercise sessions!

Mrs Bennett's proud moment is that for now, every washing basket is empty and she has no washing to do.

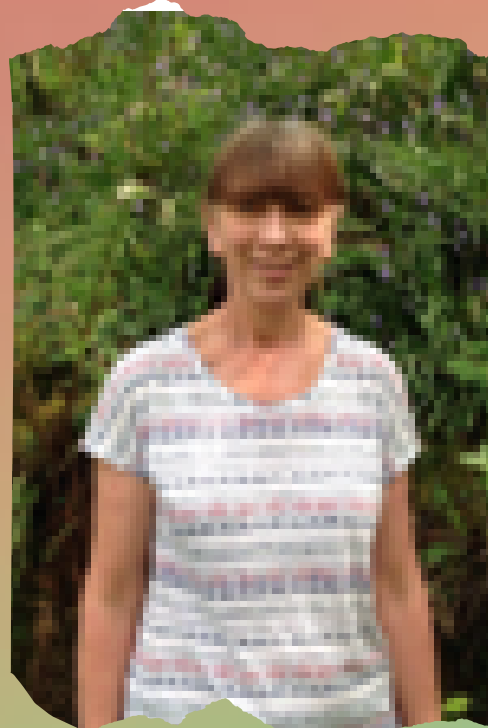

Mr Jewell's proud moment is that he has put so much work into his garden and now its looking good.

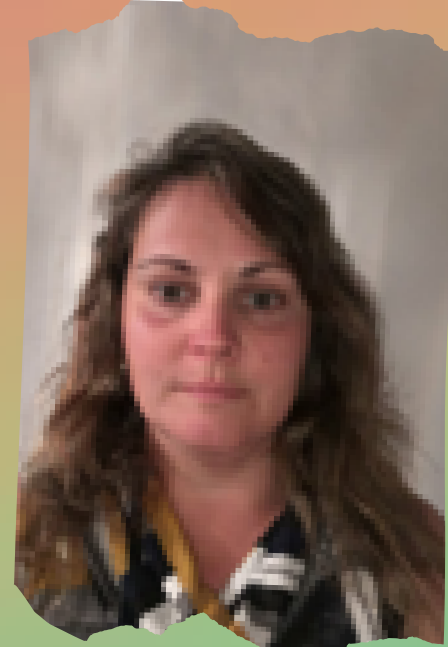

Mrs Milne's proud moment is that she is helping keyworkers by making scrubs. Happy to help the NHS.

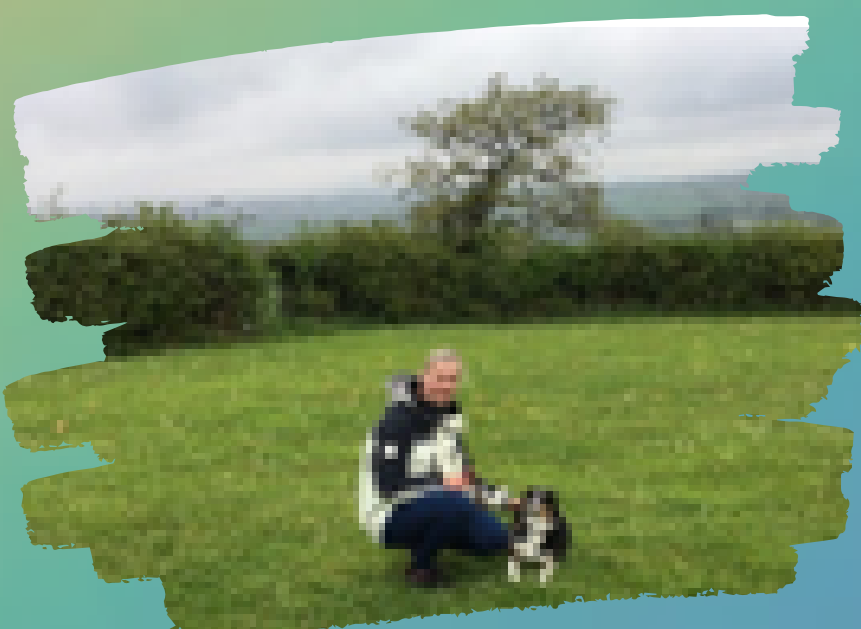

Jayne's proud moment is that she has been able to paint and maintain the stable blocks, which she has wanted to do for a long time.

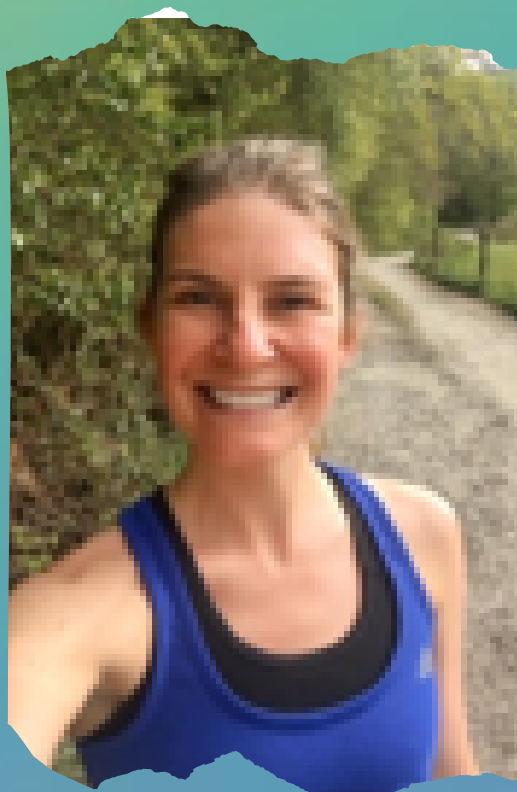

Jenny's proud moment is that she walks in our beautiful countryside every day.

Mrs Rowe's proud moment is that she has cooked over 95 delicious meals so far! And she has made all of her garden look nice with no weeds (she even pulled brambles and stinging nettles that were taller than her).

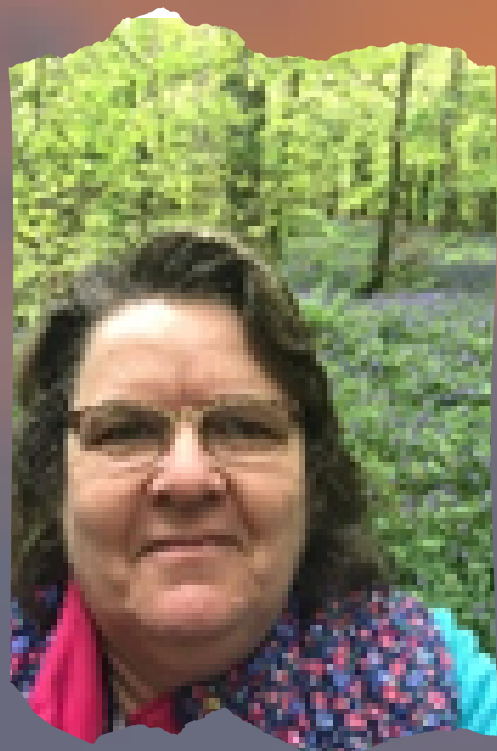

Mrs Robins proud moment is that she has volunteered as a dog walker in her village, so not only does she have lots of lovely dogs to walk, she also keeps fit at the same time.

Miss Mee's proud moment is that she has started running long distances again and enjoying the sunshine at the same time!

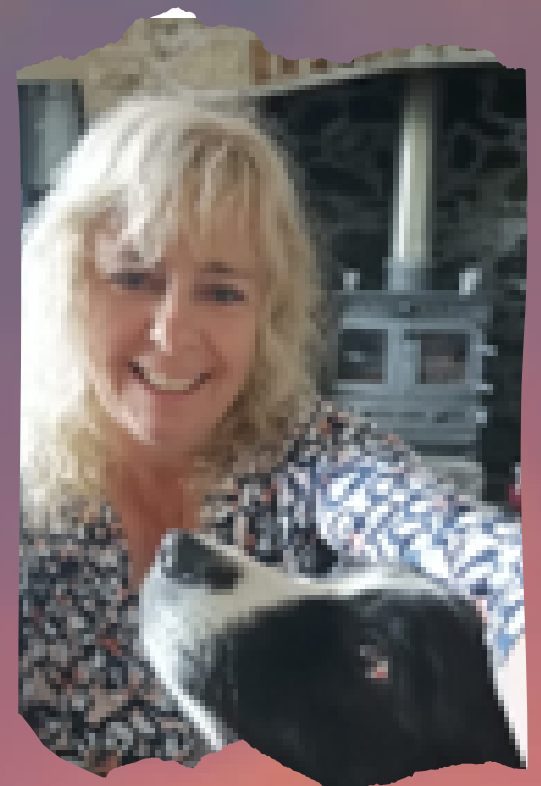

Dee's proud moment is that she has not only cut Peter's admittedly thinning hair, but also has amazed herself by skinning a salmon!

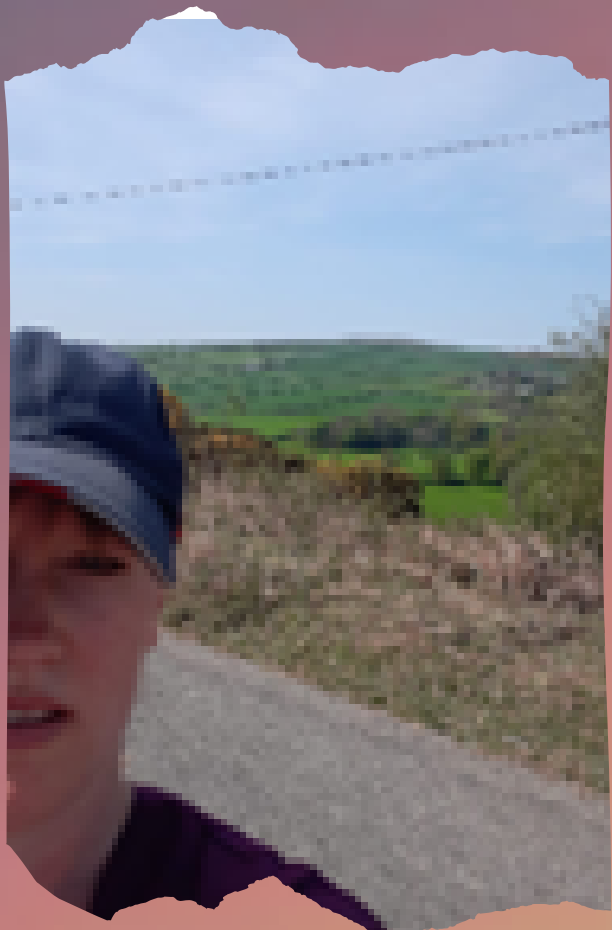

Mrs Martin's proud moment is that she has volunteered to shop for family, friends and neighbours.

Mrs Johnson's proud moment is that her dog is looking after her, when times are tricky.

Mrs Ashman's proud moment is that she has managed to clip both of her dogs fur with clippers. She is very pleased with the result.

Donna's proud moment is that she has taken up the 5k challenge and she can see the bottom of her washing basket.

Ms Crawford's proud moment is that she has managed to move two tons of gravel from a dumpy bag to the back garden with a bucket!

Mrs Gouge's proud moment is being Katie's mummy and she is very happy when she is asleep!

We hope you are well and we miss you all.
