

WORLD BOOK DAY

Yesterday we celebrated a love for reading by dressing as characters from myths and legends. We had dragons and knights, mermaids and unicorns, Vikings, Medusa, fairies and many, many more. Thank you to all of you for putting such a tremendous amount of work into your outfits, there were some really exceptional ones.

(Did you notice that the staff all came dressed as characters from Harry Potter?) Tracee Foot from Liskeard Library joined us to read stories and celebrate a love of reading.

Photos are on the website under the Events tab.

Your child should have received their World Book Day voucher, please let Dee know if you haven't received yours. All you need to do is to take it to your local bookseller and swap it for one of the FIFTEEN exclusive, new and completely FREE World Book Day books. Or, if you'd prefer, you can use your book token to get £1 off any full price book instead. And if you'd rather get an audiobook, that's fine too! It's your choice, just as long as the book or audiobook costs at least £2.99

BAD PARKING

We were appalled to hear from a neighbour this week that on Monday morning a car had reversed up her drive and parked, completely blocking her in. The number plate was KM10 XAB.

It doesn't matter how late you are it is not acceptable to do this. Our neighbours are very tolerant and understanding as a rule but this lady was understandably angry.
